Marja Sprock, M.D., FACOG

SPECIALITY: Dr. Sprock is a board-certified obstetrician and gynecologist (FACOG) with fellowship training in urogynecology.

EDUCATION: Dr. Sprock, who has two decades of experience as a physician, trained as an obstetrician-gynecologist at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, and always gravitated toward the gynecological side of the specialty. "I think a lot of people need help in that area," she says. She completed her fellowship in urogynecology at Henry Ford Hospital and has practiced in the field for the past eight years. Central Florida UroGynecology is entirely dedicated to urogynecology and cosmetic gynecology. AWARDS/HONORS: Recognized by Henry Ford Hospital for her commitment to excellence in women's care and resident education. PROFES- SIONAL MEMBERSHIPS/AFFILIATIONS: As a member of the International Urogynecological Association (IUGA), Dr. Sprock has traveled the world; nationally she is a member of the American Urogynecologic Society (AUGS) and the American Association of Gynecologic Laparoscopists (AAGL). GREATEST PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENT: Always striving for excellence and great relationships. GREATEST PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENT: Making personalized and caring urogynecologic and cosmetic services available to women. Many women suffer with urinary, fecal or vaginal prolapse problems. "They always think they're the only one," Dr. Sprock says. "I can make people feel a lot better. They look 10 years younger. They get their self-confidence back." This makes the specialty particularly rewarding for her as a doctor. INNOVATIONS: Dr. Sprock has contributed to the development of several mesh and incontinence sling products as well the development of new surgical procedures. In addition she has taught numerous physicians the latest techniques and helped them improve their surgical skills and knowledge. WHAT SETS HER APART: Dr. Sprock is one of the few female urogynecologists in the country. She is down to earth and has a great sense of humor, which makes discussing these sensitive problems a whole lot easier. Do not feel embarrassed to discuss any urine, fecal, or vaginal prolapse problem—there are solutions and options out there.
